

FROM OUR PASTOR

It's that time of year again. We've made past Halloween, oops, I mean Reformation Day. But already in early October there were already Christmas decorations for sale. It's November. And in November we know what's coming. Turkey Day! Really, that's what some people are calling Thanksgiving.

Perhaps we should really take the whole month to devote ourselves to giving Thanks to God for all His benefits to us. We could meditate on the first article of the Creed and it's meaning from Luther's Small and Large Catechisms. Then we could also meditate on how thankful we should be for what God has done for us in the 2nd and 3rd articles of the Creed. Go ahead. Open your catechism and look it up. Just what should you be thankful for in those parts of the Creed? It's your homework assignment for the month.

There's an old gospel hymn called "Count your blessings." In it we are "count our blessings, count them one by one." One spiritual tradition I'm aware of has a gratitude box. You have a special box with a whole in the top. Every time you remember or it comes to mind that you have something to be thankful for you write it down and place it in the box. Later on, when you decide to have a "pity party" you are to take down the box and open it up. Then read about all the things you are grateful for. It's a good way of getting out of self-pity.

But we are Christians. And while that may be a good practice and I certainly encourage it, even unbelievers can do that and do. We can and will do better than rank unbelievers! How and in what way?

St. Paul writes in 1 Thessalonians 5:18, "Whatever happens, thank God, because that is what God in Christ Jesus wants you to do." Whatever. Normally these days when this word is by itself, it is a condescending phrase by people who don't want to hear what you have to say. But here it is an all inclusive word. Whatever happens. Nothing excluded. Not losing a job, getting ill, losing a loved one, or simply having a miserable life with Murphy's Law running rampant.

Whatever happens, give thanks to God. You mean thank God for losing my eye sight? Yes. What about the loss of a child? Yes. How about terminal cancer which has a lengthened debilitating painful path to death? Yes. That's what "whatever" means. Whatever happens you are to give thanks nothing withstanding.

How and why? Let's take why first. "That's what God in Christ Jesus wants you to do." It is God you will give thanks for all things, good and bad. That is what makes you different from rank unbelievers. Because you are in Christ Jesus you believe "God works all things for good for those who love Him and have been called according to His purpose." (Rom. 8:28) You have been called by the Gospel according to His purpose. Therefore unlike the fate of unbelievers, all things, good and bad, will work out for good for you. Therefore, whatever happens give thanks. It is a moment for God to take evil and make something good about it.

It may even be a principle, a law of nature. I don't know if Napoleon Hill, author of "Think and Grow Rich" was a Christian or not. From what he writes I get the idea that he was not. But in all his books he has this principle: In every loss, suffering or setback there is a seed of equivalent benefit. In one book he quotes a lady who says this, "Before my husband was killed I belonged to a church! After meeting with adversities without going down under them I have become a Christian and I now live my religion, instead of merely accepting it as something to believe." Our "Book of Concord" also states that real faith is not mere tacit approvals of theological statements. It lives as if what it says it believes is true.

So if we believe: "God works all things for good for those who love Him and have been called according to His purpose." If we believe: "You haven't been tempted more than you could expect. And you can trust God. He will not let you be tested more than you can stand. But when you are tested, He will also make a way out so that you can bear it." (1 Cor. 10:13) If we believe: Eph. 1:3 Let us praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who in Christ has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in heaven. ⁴He has done what in His kindness He planned to do: Before He made the world, He Who loved us ⁵appointed us to be made His sons by Jesus Christ. In Him He chose us to be holy and blameless before Him ⁶in order to praise the glory of the love He gave us in His dear Son, ⁷Who bought us with His blood to forgive our sins and set us free. . . . Finally if live as if 1 Thess. 5:23 "The God of peace make you holy in every way and keep your spirit and soul and body sound and without a fault when our Lord Jesus Christ comes. ²⁴You can depend on Him Who calls you--He will do it" is true, then we cannot but give thanks to God whatever happens because we know and believe that God loves us and if He loves us, nothing else really matters anyway.

God Bless!

Pastor Guillaume Williams, Sr.

ELDERS

We thank God He has been encouraging some new people, as well as visitors, to attend our worship services lately. We are also happy to see more people at the Sunday morning Bible class following the Service, but there's certainly room for many more and we encourage all who can to attend. Bible class offers the opportunity for two-way discussions and explanations of what God's word says to us.

We have many members who have physical and age problems, so keep them in mind in your daily prayers. And don't hesitate to contact your assigned Elder if you have any questions or concerns.

In His name,
Gene Scheiter (470-0251)
Chuck Kiel (480-5335)

FROM OUR PRESIDENT

As we are coming up on the time when you might be asked by a member of the Nominating Committee to consider taking an elected position here at Hope, I have a couple of things I would like you to think about.

My message today is for you to get involved. Get involved in your church, your church family and your Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Most of you are old enough to remember the Abbot and Costello comedy skit, “Who’s on First”. I know we have all laughed at that skit at one time or another. Here is a story, comical, we are unfortunately not in a comical situation.

Once upon a time there were four men named: Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was asked to do it. But Everybody was sure Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about it, because it was Everybody’s job. Everybody thought that Anybody could do it, and Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn’t do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody and Nobody did the job that Anybody could have done in the first place. At last report, these four men were still arguing and the job they were supposed to do, still wasn’t done.

There are three issues! First keeping the current members active and not burned out. Second, finding new members and finally, helping them find their Lord and Savior.

Perhaps the following story will also help to drive home the point.

The church was shocked this week to learn that one of our most faithful members, Someone Else, had passed away. This death creates a vacancy that will be difficult to fill. Someone Else had been with us for many years. During all those years, he did far more than a normal person’s share of the work. Whenever leadership was mentioned, this person was looked to for inspiration, as well as results.

Whenever there was a job to do, a class to teach or a meeting to attend...one name was on everyone’s list, “let Someone Else do it”.

Someone Else was also among the biggest givers in the church. Whenever there was a financial need, everyone assumed that Someone Else would make up the difference. This beloved church member was a wonderful person, sometimes appearing to be superhuman, but one person can only do so much. Everybody expected too much of Someone Else.

So where is this leading me? When you are on a nominating committee, or a trustee or other committee chairman, looking for help, what you hear is: "I'm too busy", "I can't spare the time", "I have other commitments", "I don't know how I can help", "it isn't convenient right now"! It is sort of like when my doctor asks me if I am watching what I eat, and getting regular exercise. It is far too easy to say yes, or give excuses, when in fact my diet watching is shoveling food into my mouth, and my regular exercise is getting from the couch to the refrigerator and back to the couch and TV.

Now Someone Else is gone. Who will pitch in to do the things that Someone Else had always done?

When you meet a new neighbor, I hope you will invite them to come to church. When you are asked to accept an elected position at the church, at least pray on it before you make your decision. When you are asked to help with a project, surely you can spare a few hours to help out.

When you are asked, I hope you won't reply (or think), "let Someone Else do it. We all need to be ready to pick up where Someone Else left off.

God's Blessing to you all!
Don Hunkeler
Congregational President

STEWARDSHIP

St. Paul wrote to the Church of Christ in Corinth: "Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Cor 9:7). God loves a cheerful giver. But who is a cheerful giver?

Abel was. By faith, Abel gave the firstborn of his flock, and it was acceptable in God's sight. Abraham was. By faith, Abraham prepared cakes and a tender choice calf for God and entertained angels unaware. So also were David and Solomon. By faith, David would not make a sacrifice to God that cost him nothing, so he paid Araunah his due. By faith, Solomon built a house for God, where his name would dwell and thereby where He would dwell to be Israel's God and they His people.

What more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell of all those who gave not simply for the joy of giving but for the joy of knowing the One to whom they gave.

So also our Lord, who for the joy set before Him, gave everything, yes, even His life, enduring the cross and scorning its shame. He gave to the shedding of His blood, willingly and resolutely setting His face toward Jerusalem to die for the life of the world. Though He was rich in every way, He became poor, so that by His poverty we might be rich beyond measure.

So then, let us – like Abel and Abraham, like David and Solomon, and even like our Lord Jesus Christ – give cheerfully to God for the work of His kingdom in our midst. Like them, let us decide in our heart – for the joy set before us – the joy of knowing the One to whom we give is the One who gives us all good things.

Cans for Charity Program

Instead of harming the environment by just trashing your used aluminum cans, such as soda and beer cans, why not keep the world cleaner and at the same time, provide assistance to needy people throughout the world?

Hope Ladies Guild is introducing a program called CANS FOR CHARITY which will recycle used aluminum cans and donate 100% of the net proceeds for charities, both locally and world wide.

If you will collect your used aluminum cans in plastic bags (30 gallon size suggested, but not necessary), there are two ways to contribute. One, you may deposit them yourself in our CANS FOR CHARITY collection bin(s) (location will be announced soon). Or, when you accumulate enough to fill a small pick-up truck, you may call the church office and we will pick them up. We are confident God will appreciate your concern for a cleaner environment and helping needy people.
