WE WELCOME you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. You are invited to open your heart to God's Word in Scripture, Sermon, and Song.

You are Always welcome here – this is your Father's House!

God Bless your worship with us!

TO HELP US BE SAFE:

- No one is to get out of their cars - and especially - no bathroom breaks.
- Park with at least one car space in between you and the next vehicle. This is so you can safely roll down your windows for fresh air and to hear better.
- No communion – if you feel you need communion, please contact Pastor and schedule an appointment or see him during his office hours.
- No fellowship – well, not of the food and drink kind since we cannot get out of our vehicles, but you are welcome to nod or wave to your neighbor. We encourage this.
- Please enter & exit via the upper driveway. Camden County Health Department says we cannot pass out bulletins. You will either need to print one and bring with you, or have your phone or tablet loaded with it to follow along. We will have a container to collect any offerings.

DIVINE SERVICE - Setting Three

p184

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

Invocation

LSB 184

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Exhortation

LSB 184

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth.

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

Confession of Sins

LSB 184

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

Absolution

LSB 185

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

INTROIT

Ex. 15:2a, 6, 13, 17-18; antiphon: Ex. 15:1b

P I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously;

C the horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea.

P The LORD is my strength and my song,

C and he has become my salvation;

P Your right hand, O LORD, glorious in power,

C your right hand, O LORD, shatters the enemy.

P You have led in your steadfast love the people whom you have redeemed;

C you have guided them by your strength to your holy abode.

P You will bring them in and plant them on your own mountain,

- C the place, O LORD, which you have made for your abode,
- P the sanctuary, O Lord, which your hands have established.
- C The LORD will reign forever and ever.

Gloria in Excelsis

LSB 187

P Glory be to God on high: C and on earth peace, good - will toward men. We praise Thee, we bless Thee, we wor - ship Thee, we glorify Thee, we give thanks to Thee, for Thy great glory.

O Lord God, heav'n-ly King, God the Fa-ther Al - mighty.

O Lord, the only begotten Son, Je - sus Christ;

O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sin of the world, have mercy up-on us.

Thou that takest away the sin of the world, re-ceive our prayer.

Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us. For Thou only art holy; Thou on - ly art the Lord.

Thou only, O Christ, with the Ho - ly Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. A - men.

Salutation and Collect of the Day

p189

P The Lord be with you.

C And with thy spir - it.

P Let us pray.

Almighty God, through Your only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, You overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life. We humbly pray that we may live before You in righteousness and purity forever; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

The Lord Jesus Brings Us Out of Death into Life with His God and Father in Heaven

Exodus 14:10—15:1 ~ 1 Corinthians 15:1–11 ~ John 20:1–18

In Adam, all people die because all people sin. The children of that first gardener have been driven out of Paradise and return to the dust whence they were taken. But now another Gardener has come, who has made His bed in the dust of the earth and who, by His rising, restores Paradise to all the children of men. With His voice of the Gospel, He calls us by name, and He opens our eyes to behold Him by faith. At His Word, we enter His tomb through Baptism into His death, so that, just as He is risen, we also “rise from the dead” (John 20:9). Come, then, “sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously” (Ex. 15:1). He has fought for us against our enemies, and in His resurrection not one enemy remains. “Fear not,” therefore, but “see the salvation of the LORD” (Ex. 14:13), which He delivers “as of first importance” by the preaching of His Gospel (1 Cor. 15:3). Thus, we are raised with Christ “in accordance with the Scriptures” (1 Cor. 15:4), and we stand firm because we “are being saved” (1 Cor. 15:1–2).

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Exodus 14:10—15:1

When Pharaoh came near them, the Israelites looked up and saw the Egyptians coming after them, and the Israelites were terrified and cried to the LORD. “Was it because there were no graves in Egypt,” they asked Moses, “that you took us out to die in the desert? Why did you take us away from Egypt? Didn't we tell you in Egypt, ‘Let us alone, and we'll serve the Egyptians?’ It would be better for us to work for the Egyptians than to die in the desert.” “Don't be afraid,” Moses told the people. “Stand still and see how the LORD is going to save you today. The Egyptians you see today you will never see again. The LORD is fighting for you, so be still.” “Why are you crying to Me?” the LORD asked Moses. “Tell the Israelites to go forward. And you, raise your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it, and Israel will walk through the sea on dry ground. The Egyptians, whom I am making stubborn, will go in after them, and I will be glorified at the expense of Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots and cavalry. Then the Egyptians will know I am the LORD, when I win glory over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his cavalry.”

Then God's Angel, Who had been going ahead of the caravan of Israel, moved and went behind them as the pillar of cloud also moved away from in front of them and took its place behind them. It came between the army of the Egyptians, for whom it was a dark cloud, and the army of Israel, for whom it lit up the night, and all night they didn't come near each other. Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the LORD had a strong wind blow from the east all night to make the sea go back, and so He changed the sea to dry land. The waters parted, and the Israelites went through the middle of the sea on dry ground, the water standing like a wall on their right side and on their left. The Egyptians, all Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and cavalry, pursued them and went after them into the middle of the sea. In the watch before dawn the LORD looked down from the pillar of fire and cloud at the Egyptian army and threw it into a panic. He took the wheels off of their chariots so that they could hardly go ahead in them, and the Egyptians said, "Let us flee from the Israelites, because the LORD is fighting on their side against Egypt."

"Stretch out your hand over the sea," the LORD told Moses, "and the water will flow back over the Egyptians, their chariots, and their cavalry." Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the water flowed back to its place. The Egyptians fled to avoid it, but the LORD swept them right into the sea. The water flowed back, covered Pharaoh's whole army, the chariots and the cavalry, that had followed Israel into the sea; not one of them escaped. The Israelites had gone through the middle of the sea on dry ground while the waters stood like a wall on their right side and on their left. So the LORD saved Israel from the hands of the Egyptians that day, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the shore of the sea. When Israel saw what a mighty thing the LORD had done to the Egyptians, the people feared the LORD, and they believed the LORD and his servant Moses.

Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD: "I will sing to the LORD, Who has triumphed; horses and their riders He has thrown into the sea."

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

adapt. from Matt. 28:7; Heb. 2:7; Ps. 8:6

P Christ has risen from the dead.

C [God the Father] has crowned him with glory and honor,

P He has given him dominion over the works of his hands;

C he has put all things under his feet.

EPISTLE LESSON

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

My fellow Christians, I am telling you the good news I brought you and you accepted.

You stand in it and are saved by it if you cling to the words I used in telling it to you - unless you were trifling when you believed. I brought you what I received - something very important - that Christ died for our sins as the Scriptures said He would, He was buried, and He rose on the third day as the Scriptures said He would. Peter saw Him, then the twelve, then more than 500 Christians at one time; most of these are still living, but some have gone to their rest. Then James saw Him, then all the apostles. Last of all I saw Him, I who was like one prematurely born, since I am the least of the apostles and not fit to be called an apostle because I persecuted God's church. God's grace made me what I am, and His grace wasn't wasted on me. But I did far more work than all the others - not I but God's grace that was with me. Now, whether I did it or they, this is what we preach, and this is what you believed.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

HOLY GOSPEL LESSON

John 20:1-18

P The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the twentieth chapter.

C Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

Early on Sunday morning while it was still dark Mary from Magdala went to the grave and saw the stone had been taken away from the grave. So she ran and came to Simon Peter and the other disciple, whom Jesus loved. "They've taken the Lord out of the grave," she told them, "and we don't know where they laid Him." So Peter and the other disciple started out for the grave. The two were running side by side, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and got to the grave first. He looked in and saw the linen wrappings lying there but didn't go in. When Simon Peter got there after him, he went into the grave. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, also the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who got to the grave first, also went in, saw it, and believed. They didn't know yet what the Bible meant when it said He had to rise from the dead. So the disciples went home again.

Mary stood outside, facing the grave and crying. As she cried, she looked into the grave and saw two angels in white clothes sitting where Jesus' body had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. "Woman, why are you crying?" they asked her. "They've taken my Lord away," she told them, "and I don't know where they laid Him." After she said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there but didn't know it was Jesus. "Woman, why are you crying?" Jesus asked her. "Whom are you looking for?" "Sir," she said to Him, thinking He was the gardener, "if you carried Him away, tell me where you laid Him, and I will take Him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned. "Rabboni!" she said to Him in the Jewish language. (The word means "Teacher.") "Don't hold on to Me," Jesus told her. "I didn't go up to the Father yet. But go to My brothers and tell them, 'I am going up to My Father and your Father, to My God and your God.'" Mary from Magdala went and told the disciples, "I saw the Lord," and that He said this to her.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

APOSTLES' CREED

p192 or the back cover of LSB

G I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.

He descended into hell.

The third day He rose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.

From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost,
 the holy Christian Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and the life † everlasting. Amen.

Sermon

“Have you believed in vain?”

☐ The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

☑ Amen.

Prayer of the Church

P Our help is in the Name of the Lord;

C The Maker of heaven and earth.

P Most holy God, the source of all good desires, all right judgments, and all just works: Give to us, your servants, that peace which the world cannot give, so that our minds may be fixed on the doing of your will, and that we, being delivered from all fear may live in peace and quietness; through the mercies of Christ Jesus our Savior. Amen.

O God, you will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are fixed on you; for in returning and rest we shall be saved; in quietness and trust shall be our strength. Isaiah 26:3; 30:15

Heavenly Father, we confess to you our fears, our worries, and our anxieties. You have given us your perfect love which casts out all fear and your peace which transcends all understanding, but even still we feel dislodged, displaced, untethered, and uncertain during these times.

P We believe, Lord;

C help our unbelief.

P Lord, have mercy.

C Christ, have mercy.

P Lord, have mercy. O God, make speed to save us.

C O Lord, make haste to help us.

P Come to me, all who labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. Matthew 11:28-30

May the God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in you that which is pleasing in his sight; through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Hebrews 13:20-21

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people as we cry out to you; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all of your creation; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, giver of life, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

C Amen.

P Gracious God, the comfort of all who sorrow, the strength of all who suffer: Let the cry of those who grieve come to you, that they may find your mercy present with them in all their afflictions; and give us, we pray, the strength to serve them for the sake of him who suffered for us, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen.

P Let us also pray For a swift end to COVID-19. For those infected and those who have been exposed;

C grant them strength, healing, and protection.

P For their loved ones and caretakers;

C grant them peace, comfort, and endurance.

P For those leading nations;

C grant them sound minds, courage, and humility.

P For physicians, nurses, technicians, researchers, administrators, and all other healthcare employees around the world;

C grant them strength by your life-giving Spirit, wisdom, and resources to do the work before them.

P For those who must work, despite the threat of sickness;

C grant them protection and continued provision.

P For those who have become unemployed or underemployed during this pandemic;

C grant them comfort, wisdom, and financial provision.

P For churches and their clergy;

C grant them discernment and creativity to lead and minister in unprecedented circumstances.

P For parents and families;

C grant them wisdom, patience and joy.

P For children; grant them protection from fear. For those for whom home is not a safe haven;

C grant them refuge.

P For those who are alone;

C grant them a sense of your nearness and love.

P For all navigating decisions during this time of uncertainty and fear;

C grant them your peace.

- P And for all the prayers we cannot voice because our language is insufficient or our ignorance too great;
- C Lord, hear our prayer. Amen.
- P O God, your unfailing providence sustains the world we live in and the life we live;
- C grant that we may never forget that our common life depends upon each other's toil; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
- P Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made. We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory throughout all ages.
- C Amen.
- P Lord God, almighty and everlasting Father, you have brought us in safety to this new day: Preserve us with your mighty power, that we may not fall into sin, nor be overcome by adversity; and in all we do, direct us to the fulfilling of your purpose; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
- C Amen.
- P Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you." May the God of hope fill us with all joy and peace in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit.
- C Amen.

Lord's Prayer

- P Taught by our Lord and trusting His promises, we are bold to pray:
- C Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven;
give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses

as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Salutation and Benedicamus

P The Lord be with you.

C And with thy spirit.

P Bless we the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Benediction

LSB 202

P The Lord bless you and keep you.

The Lord make His face shine on you and be gracious to you.

The Lord look upon you with favor and ✠ give you peace.

C Amen.

Closing Hymn ~ The Strife Is O'er, the Battle Done

LSB 464

Refrain

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

1 The strife is o'er, the bat - tle done;
2 The pow'rs of death have done their worst,
