

Jer. 23, 6: This is His name whereby He shall be called, THB LORD, OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

Going into Advent as we anticipate the incarnation of our LORD Jesus Christ I bring this meditation from "Proof Text of the Catechism" by Graebner and Dau for your consideration.

Lord, i. e., Jehovah, is the exalted name here attributed to Christ. To see the full force of this name as applied to Christ, we must inquire into the meaning of the term Jehovah.—God, appearing to Moses in the burning bush, commissioned him to bring the children of Israel out of Egypt, to deliver them from the hands of Pharaoh, Ex. 3, 10.11. Tim idly Moses asks: "Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say unto me, What is His name? what shall I say unto them? And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM, (ehyeh asher ehyeh) ; and He said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM (ehyeh) hath sent me unto you."—From the same root of which Ehyeh is formed, the proper names of the Deity Jahve or Jehovah are etymologically derived. Hence, in the very next verse God says to Moses: "Thou hath shalt say unto unto the children of Israel, Jehovah (the LORD)...has sent me unto you." Thus this revelation of Himself, we learn the authentic interpretation of the name Jehovah to be: "I Am That I Am," or briefly, "I Am."

Jehovah is the eternal I Am; Jehovah is He that is and is and always is, He that is absolutely unchangeable, remaining through all eternity one and the same. Whilst Elohim, another name of God (derived from El, strength, power), is found principally in such passages where God is manifested in the plenitude of His power and strength as the Creator, the Preserver, and the Governor of the world, Jehovah is generally used to exhibit His relation to His people as their faithful God, their covenant God, as the God of their salvation, Ex. 3, 15. The use of this exalted name, Jehovah, God has expressly reserved unto Himself. Ex. 3, 15 He says: "Jehovah this is my name for ever." Is. 42, 8. "I am Jehovah (the Lord) : that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another." Is. 45, 5.21. "I am Jehovah (the Lord), and there is none else, there is no God beside me." Ps. 83, 18. "Thou, whose name is alone Jehovah, art the most high over all the earth."

But why multiply instances? The name Jehovah, as is evident from the passages quoted, is applicable to the one true God only, beside whom there is no other God ; it is a name that God has strictly forbidden another to assume. Now, this exalted name, applicable to "the Most High" only, is ascribed in our text to Christ; Christ is Jehovah. "This is His name whereby He shall be called, Jehovah." Christ is Jehovah, is God, in the fullest sense of the word, without any limitation or restriction. Not even the faintest trace of a "delicate line of separation between Him and the Father" is discernible. Christ Himself says: "I and my Father are one"—hen, John, 10, 30. "Before Abraham was, I am, John 8, 58, Christ is the "I Am"—ego eimi.—And because Christ Himself is Jehovah, He is also our Righteousness. The righteousness we have in Him is perfect, one that availeth before God. Because this Lord Jehovah takes the place of sinners, "Judah shall be saved and Israel shall dwell safely," v. 6. Ps. 2, 7.

God Bless!

Pastor Guillaume Williams, Sr.

FROM OUR ELDERS

Greetings from your Board of Elders:

As we close the calendar year we begin a new church year. The past calendar year has been challenging to say the least. Intertwined in chaos, I am sure that we can all find blessings we have received. Let's all focus on these blessings, and the promises that God has given us so we can maintain a positive and cheerful attitude.

The new church year points us to the future. Our salvation and the promise of eternal life started with the virgin birth of Jesus. A miracle to be sure, but also, the promise that God has the power to do everything. Let us all take comfort in God's power, and gladly sing "Oh, come, Oh come Emmanuel"

Yours in Christ,

Alan Wiese

FROM OUR PRESIDENT

This country is in a mess, the pandemic is running wild. What do I have to be happy about? First of all, look around you. What do you see? You see the gift of life. If you have faith, then you believe in your Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving was here and hopefully, you were able to spend it with family and friends. Another gift we take for granted.

Christmas is fast approaching, and again we get to celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior. What greater gift is there than that? We all have far more blessings than we can count or deserve. Thanks be to God.

The nominating committee is still looking for people to fill a couple of positions. If asked, prayerfully consider serving.

May the Lord continue to bless you, and/or family in the coming year.

May his peace be with all of you.

Don Hunkeler

SWADDLING CLOTHES

Thank you to all those who donated food and money to make up 27 baskets to give to area families this Thanksgiving! We were also able to give those 27 families Children's Bibles. They were so thankful for the gift baskets.

We also will do baskets for Christmas. We have been doing baskets for 4 years. This year they will contain food and gifts for the children and the parents.

Your help is always appreciated and you are a blessing to these families. Some come in with the children needing shoes, socks, hats, clothes and especially diapers and wipes. None of this is possible without your donations. If you would like to give, please put your gift in an envelope and be sure your giving number is on it so you get credit and put in the offering plate.

We always need your help with helping these families on our free shopping day. It is only 2 hours the third Tuesday and 2 hours on the following Saturday a month.

As the end of the year is near, I need to thank the members who have helped, they are Irene Merchant, Jackie Onstott, Kathy Wiese, Christina Williams and her wonderful kids, Marie, Adele, Constantin, and Max. Betty Merli, the quilting lady, who make beautiful quilts, the ladies of the Sr. Center who knit and crochet blankets and hats! Chuck Kiel, Mike Merchant and Alan Wiese and of course Pastor Williams who welcome our families when they arrive. All these members work so hard and I appreciate them.

There are no age boundaries in Swaddling Clothes. When doing God's work there is no age limit! We would love you to join us! Some of these members are snowbirds and when they are gone I need your help. Can you give some time to helping in 2021.

May God bless you and keep you safe during this most difficult time in our country.

TO GOD BE THE GLORY
AND
MERRY CHRISTMAS AND BLESSED NEW YEAR!

Karen Kiel, Swaddling Clothes Director

LATEST SERVICE/PROCEDURE CHANGES

We will continue to avoid using the hymnals and social distancing until the federal government decides masks are no longer useful.

Pews will continue to be blocked off and modified communion through October.

Please remember to sign the fellowship book at the end of the pew. There is one on each end so you don't have to pass to the person on the other end of your pew. This helps us in many ways. Mainly so we can all worship and not worry about who is or isn't present at worship and why. If you are worried about being "tracked", we do not provide your attendance to anyone. It is strictly for statistics and to help the Elders determine if there is a issue that we can help with. Thank you for your help in this!

SURVIVING COVID-19

More places are opening up but that doesn't mean that CoVID-19 is gone. It's just that more information about this virus is available and our healthcare system is now equipped to test and handle the complications from it. Both the CDC and Camden County Health Department encourage continued social distancing when possible and wearing a mask when it isn't. Frequent hand washing and use of sanitizer when hand washing isn't available. Also being mindful of coughs and sneezes. Just like you would for a normal flu season.

CANS FOR CHARITY PROGRAM

We hope that you will consider helping the environment and the needy by contributing your empty drink cans (soda, juice or beer, but NOT fruit, vegetable or soup cans) to our program. All you have to do is save them in plastic bags and deposit them in the container on the church parking lot. Or, if you accumulate a lot of cans, after you get several bags, we will come by your location and pick them up. Just call Kathy at church, or collection coordinator Gene Scheiter at 573-346-2442. We thank the Lord for the success of the program thus far, which reduces waste in the environment and assists people who need help around the world.
