Hope Lutheran Chapel Communion Statement: If you are a confirmed member in good standing of a LCMS or an AALC congregation, are repentant of your sins, and believe Jesus gives you His true body and blood for the forgiveness of your sins in the Lord's Supper, you are welcome to commune with us today. (I Cor. 11:17-32) For Lutherans, receiving the Lord's Supper, is an action of the celebrating community, signifying a oneness in faith, life, and worship of the community. (I Cor. 10:14-22, 11:18-19, 26; Eph. 4:2-6) If you are a visitor from another Christian Church body or other faith, we welcome you to our service. As a sad consequence of the divisions in Christianity we cannot extend to you a general invitation to the Lord's Supper. Reception of the Lord's Supper by Christians not fully united with us would imply a oneness which does not yet exist, and for which we must all pray. If you are a visitor and not sure whether or not you should commune, please speak with the Pastor, Elder, or Usher before the service.

Communion Note: We are continuing with modified communion procedures. Pastor will be placing the host in your hand and placing the cup on the communion rail. Please place cup in buckets at end of rail when finished.

SANITIZER/WIPES ARE LOCATED AT THE END OF AISLE FOR THE HAND RAILS. Trashcans for wipes are at end of ramp.

If it is difficult for you to kneel at the rail, please feel free to remain standing.

Confession and Absolution

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth.

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P The Lord be with you.

C And with thy spir - it.

P Let us pray.

The Preaching of Repentance and Forgiveness of Sins Makes Us Pure
Acts 3:11–21 ~ 1 John 3:1–7 ~ Luke 24:36–49

The risen Lord Jesus taught His disciples “that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead” and “that repentance for the forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations” (Luke 24:46–47). Therefore, St. Peter preaches repentance and forgiveness to the people of Jerusalem. As he proclaims that Jesus fulfilled all that “God foretold by the mouth of all the prophets” (Acts 3:18), he also convicts the people of their sin, because they “delivered over and denied” this Lord Jesus and “killed the Author of life.” Yet God “glorified his servant Jesus” and raised Him from the dead (Acts 3:13–15). St. Peter calls the people to repent, so that their “sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord” (Acts 3:19–20). Through this forgiveness of sins and by faith in this forgiveness, the Father shows His love for us in order that “we should be called children of God; and so we are” (1 John 3:1). Thus, we hope in Him and are made pure even “as he is pure,” because “he appeared in order to take away sins, and in him there is no sin” (1 John 3:3, 5).

FIRST LESSON

Acts 3:11-21

As he clung to Peter and John, all the people came running together to them in Solomon's Porch, as it was called. They were dumbfounded. When Peter saw the people, he said to them, “Men of Israel, why are you wondering about this, or why are you staring at us as if by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His Servant Jesus, Whom you delivered and denied before Pilate when he had decided to let Him go. You denied the holy and righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you. You killed the Author of life. But God raised Him from the dead—we’re witnesses of that. Through faith in His name, His name made this man strong whom you see and know. The faith that Jesus works has given him this perfect health right in front of all of you. And now, fellow Jews, I know that like your rulers you didn't know what you were doing, but in this way God did what He predicted by all the prophets—His Christ had to suffer. Repent then, and turn, to have your sins wiped out that a time may come when the Lord refreshes you and sends Jesus, Whom He appointed to be your Savior and Whom heaven had to receive until the time when everything will be restored, as God said long ago by His holy prophets.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Gradual

adapt. from Matt. 28:7; Heb. 2:7; Ps. 8:6

P Christ has risen from the dead.

C [God the Father] has crowned him with glory and honor,

P He has given him dominion over the works of his hands;

C he has put all things under his feet.

EPISTLE LESSON

1 John 3:1-7

See how the Father has loved us—we are called God's children, and that's what we are. The world doesn't know us, because it didn't know Him. Dear friends, we are now God's children, but it hasn't yet been shown what we're going to be. We know that when it will be shown, we'll be like Him because we'll see Him as He is. And everyone who trusts Him for this purifies himself as He is pure. Everyone who sins breaks the Law. Sin is breaking the Law. And you know He appeared in order to take away our sins. There is no sin in Him. Anyone who stays in Him doesn't sin. Anyone who sins hasn't seen or known Him. Children, don't let anyone deceive you. Whoever does right is righteous as He is righteous.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

HOLY GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 24:36-49

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the twenty-fourth chapter.

C Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

While they were talking about what had happened, Jesus stood among them. “Peace to you!” He said to them. They were startled and terrified and thought they were seeing a ghost. “Why are you troubled?” He asked them. “And why do doubts come into your minds? Look at My hands and My feet: it is I Myself. Touch Me and see. A ghost doesn't have flesh and bones as you see I have.” As He said this, He showed them His hands and His feet. They were overcome with joy and amazement because they thought it was too good to be true. “Do you have anything here to eat?” He asked them. They gave Him a piece of broiled fish. He took it and ate it while they watched Him. “While I was still with you,” He said to them, “I told you that everything written about Me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms must come true.” Then He opened their minds to understand the Bible. “This,” He told them, “is what is written: The Christ will suffer and will rise from the dead on the third day; and that repentance and the forgiveness of sins will be preached in His name to all people, beginning at Jerusalem. You will testify of these things. I am sending you Him Whom My Father promised. Wait here in the city until you are armed with power from above.”

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

Nicene Creed

C I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.
And in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the only-begotten Son of God,
 begotten of His Father before all worlds,
 God of God, Light of Light,
 very God of very God,
 begotten, not made,
 being of one substance with the Father,
 by whom all things were made;
 who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary
 and was made man;
 and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
 He suffered and was buried.
 And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures
 and ascended into heaven
 and sits at the right hand of the Father.
 And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead,
 whose kingdom will have no end.
 And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Lord and giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified,
 who spoke by the prophets.
 And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,
 I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,
 and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life ✝ of the world to come. Amen.
