Hope Lutheran Chapel Communion Statement: If you are a confirmed member in good standing of a LCMS or an AALC congregation, are repentant of your sins, and believe Jesus gives you His true body and blood for the forgiveness of your sins in the Lord's Supper, you are welcome to commune with us today. (I Cor. 11:17-32) For Lutherans, receiving the Lord's Supper, is an action of the celebrating community, signifying a oneness in faith, life, and worship of the community. (I Cor. 10:14-22, 11:18-19, 26; Eph. 4:2-6) If you are a visitor from another Christian Church body or other faith, we welcome you to our service. As a sad consequence of the divisions in Christianity we cannot extend to you a general invitation to the Lord's Supper. Reception of the Lord's Supper by Christians not fully united with us would imply a oneness which does not yet exist, and for which we must all pray. If you are a visitor and not sure whether or not you should commune, please speak with the Pastor, Elder, or Usher before the service.

Communion Note: For those who need assistance with the cup please hold out your hand and the Elder will hand it to you. Please place cup in buckets at end of rail when finished.

SANITIZER/WIPES ARE LOCATED AT THE END OF AISLE FOR THE HAND
RAILS. Trashcans for wipes are at end of ramp.

If it is difficult for you to kneel at the rail, please feel free to remain standing.

Confession and Absolution

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth.

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the  $\text{✠}$  Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

O Lord God, heav'nly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ;

O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sin of the world, have mercy upon us.

Thou that takest away the sin of the world, receive our prayer.

Jesus Christ Is the Great Shepherd of His Sheep

Ezekiel 34:11–24 ~ 1 Timothy 1:(5–11) 12–17 ~ Luke 15:1–10

“The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners” (1 Tim. 1:15). As He had mercy on Paul, in order to “display his perfect patience” (1 Tim. 1:16), so also does He seek out His sheep “from all places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness” (Ezek. 34:12). To deliver His flock, He “will seek the lost, ... bring back the strayed, ... bind up the injured, and ... strengthen the weak” (Ezek. 34:16), and “they shall no longer be a prey” (Ezek. 34:22). He sets over them one great Good Shepherd, the Son of David, who “shall feed them and be their shepherd” (Ezek. 34:23). For Christ Jesus is the one man who, “having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them,” would “leave the ninety-nine in the open country, and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it” (Luke 15:4). When He finds the lost one and brings it home rejoicing, “the angels of God” and all the company of heaven rejoice with Him, with great joy (Luke 15:7, 10).

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Ezekiel 34:11–24

“The Lord GOD says this: Look! I, even I, will search for My sheep and look after them. As a shepherd looks after his flock when they are scattered around him, so I will take care of My flock and rescue them from every place where they may be scattered on cloudy and gloomy days. I will bring them away from those peoples, gather them from those countries, bring them to their own land. I will feed them on the hills of Israel, by the streams, and in all the places of that land where it is so good to live. I will feed them in good pasture, and their grazing land shall be on the high mountains of Israel. There they will rest in a good place and graze in a rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I will feed My sheep and let them rest, says the Lord GOD. I will look for the lost, bring back what was driven away, bandage broken limbs and strengthen the sick, but I will destroy the fat and strong ones feeding them with justice. “And as for you, My sheep, the Lord GOD says this: I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and male goats. Is it not enough for you to feed on the best pasture? Must you trample with your feet on the rest of the pasture? You drink clear water. Must you make what is left muddy with your feet? So My sheep have to eat what your feet have trampled on and drink what your feet have made muddy. So the Lord GOD says this: Look! I, even I, will judge between the fat and the lean sheep. You with your sides and shoulders push away all the weak animals and gore them with your horns until you have scattered them far and wide. Therefore I will rescue My flock so that they will no more be a prey, and I will judge between one sheep and another. “I will raise up one Shepherd over them, My Servant David, Who will feed them. He will feed them and be their Shepherd. I the LORD will be their God, and My Servant David will be the Ruler among them. I the LORD say so.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE LESSON

1 Timothy 1:(5–11) 12–17

The goal of our instruction is love flowing from a pure heart, from a good conscience, and from a sincere faith. Certain people have failed to find this and have turned to silly talk. They want to be teachers of the Law but don't understand what they say or the things they so confidently express. But we know the Law is good if it is used as it was meant to be used, if we keep in mind that the Law is not meant for a righteous man but for those who break the Law and rebel against it, the ungodly and sinners, those who live unholy lives and insult holy things, those who kill their fathers or mothers, murderers, men who sin sexually with women or with other men, kidnappers, those who lie or swear to lies – and anything else that is contrary to sound teaching. This is according to the good news of the glory of God, the Blessed, that was entrusted to me. I thank Christ Jesus, our Lord, whose power has been in me. He thought I could be trusted and appointed me to do His work although I used to slander, persecute, and shamefully mistreat Him. But He was merciful to me because, when I didn't believe, I didn't know what I was doing. Our Lord poured His grace on me, bringing faith and love in Christ Jesus. This is a statement that can be trusted and deserves complete acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. I am the worst of them, but God was merciful to me so that Jesus Christ would first show in me all His long-suffering and make me an example to those who are going to believe in Him and live forever. To the everlasting King, the immortal, invisible, and only God, be honor and glory forever. Amen.

HOLY GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 15:1–10

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the fifteenth chapter.

C Glory be to Thee, O Lord. (spoken)

All the tax collectors and sinners were coming to Jesus to hear Him. But the Pharisees and the Bible scholars grumbled and said, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So He told them this story: "If anyone of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, don't you leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the lost one until you find it? When you find it, you lay it on your shoulders and are glad. You go home and call your friends and neighbors together and say to them, 'Be happy with me. I found my lost sheep!' So, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine good people who don't need to repent."

"Or suppose a woman has ten coins and loses one. Won't she light a lamp and sweep the house and look for it carefully till she finds it? When she finds it, she calls her women friends and neighbors together and says, 'Be happy with me. I found the coin I lost.' So, I tell you, God's angels will be happy over one sinner who repents."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise be to Thee, O Christ. (spoken)

Hymn of the Day ~ Jesus Sinners Doth Receive

LSB 609 v. 5-7

5 Oh, how blest it is to know:
Were as scarlet my transgression,
It shall be as white as snow
By Thy blood and bitter passion;
For these words I now believe:
Jesus sinners doth receive.

And my ev'ry sin remitted.
Naught remains my soul to grieve:
Jesus sinners doth receive.

6 Now my conscience is at peace;
From the Law I stand acquitted.
Christ hath purchased my release

7 Jesus sinners doth receive;
Also I have been forgiven;
And when I this earth must leave,
I shall find an open heaven.
Dying, still to Him I cleave:
Jesus sinners doth receive.

How well You feed your guest!

Generosity Thoughts

Luke 15:2 – “And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying, ‘This man receives sinners and eats with them.’ ”

Thanks be to God: Jesus receives us sinners. What the Pharisees can’t understand, we praise with all our being. We live by the grace of God. The more of it we receive, the more we will want to conform ourselves to the image of our generous and gracious Lord. Knowing the Lord and trusting Him come first, and the desire to imitate Him cannot help but follow.
