Hope Lutheran Chapel Communion Statement: If you are a confirmed member in good standing of a LCMS or an AALC congregation, are repentant of your sins, and believe Jesus gives you His true body and blood for the forgiveness of your sins in the Lord's Supper, you are welcome to commune with us today. (I Cor. 11:17-32) For Lutherans, receiving the Lord's Supper, is an action of the celebrating community, signifying a oneness in faith, life, and worship of the community. (I Cor. 10:14-22, 11:18-19, 26; Eph. 4:2-6) If you are a visitor from another Christian Church body or other faith, we welcome you to our service. As a sad consequence of the divisions in Christianity we cannot extend to you a general invitation to the Lord's Supper. Reception of the Lord's Supper by Christians not fully united with us would imply a oneness which does not yet exist, and for which we must all pray. If you are a visitor and not sure whether or not you should commune, please speak with the Pastor, Elder, or Usher before the service.*

Communion Note: For those who need assistance with the cup please hold out your hand and the Elder will hand it to you. Please place cup in buckets at end of rail when finished.

SANITIZER/WIPES ARE LOCATED AT THE END OF AISLE FOR THE HAND RAILS.

Trashcans for wipes are at end of ramp.

If it is difficult for you to kneel at the rail, please feel free to remain standing.

ORGAN PRELUDE

Palm Sunday Procession

John 12:12-19

The next day the large crowd that had come to the festival and heard, "Jesus is coming to Jerusalem," took branches from the palm trees and went out to meet Him, shouting:

"Our Savior! Blessed is He Who is coming in the Lord's name, the King of Israel!"

Jesus found a donkey and sat on it, as it is written:

"Don't be afraid, daughter of Zion!

Look! Your King is coming, riding on a donkey's colt!"

At that time His disciples didn't know what it meant, but after Jesus was glorified, they remembered that these things had been written about Him and were done to Him.

The people who had been with Him when He called Lazarus out of the grave and raised him from the dead were telling what they had seen. Because the crowd heard He had done this miracle, it came to meet Him.

Then the Pharisees said to one another, "You see, you're not getting anywhere. Look! The world is running after him."

| 1 The royal banners forward go;
The cross shows forth redemption's flow,
Where He, by whom our flesh was made,
Our ransom in His flesh has paid: | 4 On whose hard arms, so widely flung,
The weight of this world's ransom hung,
The price of humankind to pay
And spoil the spoiler of his prey. |
| 2 Where deep for us the spear was dyed,
Life's torrent rushing from His side,
To wash us in the precious flood
Where flowed the water and the blood. | 5 O tree of beauty, tree most fair,
Ordained those holy limbs to bear:
Gone is thy shame, each crimsoned bough
Proclaims the King of Glory now. |
| 3 Fulfilled is all that David told
In sure prophetic song of old,
That God the nations' king should be
And reign in triumph from the tree, | △ 6 To Thee, eternal Three in One,
Let homage meet by all be done;
As by the cross Thou dost restore,
So guide and keep us evermore.

Now Is the Hour When the Son of Man Is Glorified

Isaiah 50:4–9a ~ Philipians 2:5–11 ~ John 12:12–19 ~ Matthew 26:1—27:66

“Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming.” He comes in gentle humility, “sitting on a donkey’s colt,” yet also as the King of Israel “in the name of the Lord” (John 12:13, 15). His royal glory is faithful obedience and self-sacrificing service “to the point of death, even death on a cross” (Phil. 2:8). The love of God is manifested in the cross and Passion of His Son for the salvation of sinners. Since He has borne our sins and suffered our death, “God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name” (Phil. 2:9), and He exalts us in His resurrection. Our Lord did not hide His face “from disgrace and spitting” (Is. 50:6), but He trusted His God and Father, who raised Him from death and the grave and exalted Him to His right hand. This same King Jesus now comes to us in gentle humility in His Supper, where He feeds us with His body and cleanses and covers us with His blood, so that “after his resurrection” we also shall rise and enter the holy city (Matt. 27:52–53).

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Isaiah 50:4-9a

The Lord GOD gives Me the speech of the learned, so that I know how to talk to encourage the weary. Morning after morning He wakes Me to hear, so I will listen like a learner. The Lord GOD opened My ears, and I didn't resist or turn away. I gave My back to those who strike it and My cheeks to those who pluck the hair out of My beard. I haven't turned My face away from those who insult Me and spit on Me. The Lord GOD helps Me; this is why I'm not overcome with shame. So I've set My face like a flint; I know I'll not be shamed, because He is near Who justifies Me. Does anyone want to argue with Me? Let us confront each other. Will anyone oppose Me in this case? Let him come near Me. See, the Lord God helps Me; Who then will condemn Me? See, they will all wear out like a garment, and a moth will eat them.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE LESSON

Philippians 2:5-11

Think just as Christ Jesus thought: Although He was God, He did not consider His being equal with God as a prize to be displayed, but He emptied Himself, made Himself a slave, became like other human beings, and was seen to have the ways of a man. He became obedient and humbled Himself until He died, yes, died on a cross. That is why God also exalted Him up on high and gave Him the name above every other name that at the name of JESUS everyone in heaven and on earth and under the earth should kneel and everyone should confess, "JESUS CHRIST IS LORD!" and so glorify God the Father.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Tract for Passion Sunday

P My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

C Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?

P In you our fathers trusted;

C they trusted, and you delivered them.

P To you they cried and were rescued;

C in you they trusted and were not put to shame.

HOLY GOSPEL LESSON

John 12:20-43

P The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the twelfth chapter.

C Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Among those who came up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They went to Philip (who was from Bethsaida in Galilee) and told him, "Sir, we want to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew. Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

Jesus answered them, "The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Surely, I tell you, if a kernel of wheat doesn't fall into the ground and die, it will be just one kernel. But if it dies, it produces much grain. Love your life and lose it, but hate your life in this world, and you will keep it for an everlasting life. If you serve Me, follow Me; and where I am, there My servant will be. If you serve Me, the Father will honor you.

"I am deeply troubled now. But what should I say? Father, save Me from what is going to happen? No! I came to suffer this now. Father, glorify Your name."

Then a voice came from heaven: "I have glorified My name and will glorify it again."

The crowd, which stood there and heard it, said it had thundered. Others said, "An angel talked to Him." Jesus explained: "That voice did not come for My benefit but for yours. Now this world is being judged; now the ruler of this world will be thrown out. And once I have been lifted up from the earth, I will draw all people to Me.” He said this to indicate how He was going to die.

Then the crowd answered Him, “We've heard from the Bible the Christ remains forever. How, then, can You say the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?”

“The Light will be with you just a little longer,” Jesus answered them. “Walk while you have the Light, or darkness will overtake you. If you walk in the dark, you don't know where you're going. While you have the Light, believe in the Light in order to become enlightened people.” After Jesus had said this, He went away and hid from them.

Although they had seen Him do so many miracles, they wouldn't believe in Him - what the prophet Isaiah said had to come true: “Lord, who has believed what we preach? And to whom has the Lord's arm been uncovered?”

And so they couldn't believe, because Isaiah also said: “He blinded their eyes and dulled their hearts, so that their eyes don't see, their hearts don't understand, and they don't turn and let Me heal them.”

Isaiah said this because he saw His glory and spoke of Him. And yet even many of the rulers believed in Him but wouldn't say so publicly, because the Pharisees would have put them out of the synagogue. Yes, they loved to be praised by men more than by God.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

Nicene Creed

C I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.
And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of His Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man;

 and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
 He suffered and was buried.
 And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father.
 And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.
 And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Lord and giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets.
 And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,
 I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,
 and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life ✝ of the world to come. Amen.

Hymn of the Day ~ Jesus, I Will Ponder Now

LSB 440

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Jesus, I will ponder now
 On Your holy passion;
 With Your Spirit me endow
 For such meditation.
 Grant that I in love and faith
 May the image cherish
 Of Your suff'ring, pain, and death
 That I may not perish. 2 Make me see Your great distress,
 Anguish, and affliction,
 Bonds and stripes and wretchedness
 And Your crucifixion;
 Make me see how scourge and rod,
 Spear and nails did wound You,
 How for them You died, O God,
 Who with thorns had crowned You. 3 Yet, O Lord, not thus alone
 Make me see Your passion, | But its cause to me make known
 And its termination.
 Ah! I also and my sin
 Wrought Your deep affliction;
 This indeed the cause has been
 Of Your crucifixion. 4 Grant that I Your passion view
 With repentant grieving.
 Let me not bring shame to You
 By unholy living.
 How could I refuse to shun
 Ev'ry sinful pleasure
 Since for me God's only Son
 Suffered without measure? 5 If my sins give me alarm
 And my conscience grieve me,
 Let Your cross my fear disarm;
 Peace of conscience give me. |
|--|--|

Help me see forgiveness won
By Your holy passion.
If for me He slays His Son,
God must have compassion!
6 Graciously my faith renew;
Help me bear my crosses,

Dear Savior, hear my prayer.
Let not an unrepentant heart
Prove hurtful to me there.

2 Lord, I confess my sins
And mourn their wretched bands;

Forgiveness at Your hands.

3 Your body and Your blood,
Once slain and shed for me,
Are taken at Your table, Lord,
In blest reality.

All that You are we here receive,
And all we are to You we give.

Rejoicing in our unity,
Proclaim Your love until You come
To bring Your scattered loved ones home.

O keep us steadfast till that day
When each will be Your welcomed guest
In heaven's high and holy feast.

LCMS Stewardship Ministry Generosity Thoughts

Matthew 21:3 – “If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and he will send them at once.” Did Jesus really need the donkey? If the man had refused to give the donkey, would the work of salvation have been derailed? Of course not. But what an honor for the man who owned this donkey and foal! Likewise, with us — the Lord needs none of us, but what an honor for God to choose to use our generosity in the work of His church.

ATTENTION EASTER COOKS/BAKERS
