Hope Lutheran Chapel Communion Statement: If you are a confirmed member in good standing of a LCMS or an AALC congregation, are repentant of your sins, and believe Jesus gives you His true body and blood for the forgiveness of your sins in the Lord's Supper, you are welcome to commune with us today. (I Cor. 11:17-32) For Lutherans, receiving the Lord's Supper, is an action of the celebrating community, signifying a oneness in faith, life, and worship of the community. (I Cor. 10:14-22, 11:18-19, 26; Eph. 4:2-6) If you are a visitor from another Christian Church body or other faith, we welcome you to our service. As a sad consequence of the divisions in Christianity we cannot extend to you a general invitation to the Lord's Supper. Reception of the Lord's Supper by Christians not fully united with us would imply a oneness which does not yet exist, and for which we must all pray. If you are a visitor and not sure whether or not you should commune, please speak with the Pastor, Elder, or Usher before the service.

Communion Note: For those who need assistance with the cup please hold out your hand and the Elder will hand it to you.

SANITIZER/WIPES ARE LOCATED AT THE END OF AISLE FOR THE HAND RAILS. Trashcans for wipes are at end of ramp.

If it is difficult for you to kneel at the rail, please feel free to remain standing.

ORGAN PRELUDE

Opening Hymn ~ O Living Bread from Heaven

LSB 642

1 O living Bread from heaven,
How well You feed your guest!
The gifts that You have given
Have filled my heart with rest.
Oh, wondrous food of blessing,
Oh, cup that heals our woes!
My heart, this gift possessing,
With praises overflows.

3 You gave me all I wanted;
This food can death destroy.
And You have freely granted
The cup of endless joy.
My Lord, I do not merit
The favor You have shown,
And all my soul and spirit
Bow down before Your throne.

2 My Lord, You here have led me
To this most holy place
And with Yourself have fed me
The treasures of Your grace;
For You have freely given
What earth could never buy,
The bread of life from heaven,
That now I shall not die.

4 Lord, grant me then, thus strengthened
With heav'nly food, while here
My course on earth is lengthened,
To serve with holy fear.
And when You call my spirit
To leave this world below,
I enter, through Your merit,
Where joys unmingled flow.

Confession and Absolution

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth.

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Jesus Is the True and Living Bread from Heaven

Exodus 16:2–15 ~ Ephesians 4:1–16 ~ John 6:22–35

Having rescued Israel "out of the land of Egypt" (Ex. 16:6), the Lord manifested His glory and made Himself known to His people. He fed them with "meat to eat" in the evening and with "bread from heaven" in the morning (Ex. 16:4, 8, 12). But now, the "true bread from heaven," which the Father gives to you, is the Son, "who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world" (John 6:32–33). Whoever comes to Him "shall not hunger," and whoever believes in Him "shall never thirst." He is "the bread of life," who gives Himself to you as "the food that endures to eternal life" (John 6:27, 35). By the gracious working of God, you believe in Him by the calling of one Spirit through the Gospel, so that you also have "one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all" (Eph. 4:4–6). As you eat His one body in the Holy Supper, so you belong to the one Body of His Church, in which you "are to grow up in every way into him who is the head" (Eph. 4:15).

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Exodus 16:2-15

In the wilderness the whole congregation grumbled against Moses and Aaron. "If only we had died by the LORD's hand in Egypt," the Israelites told them, "when we sat by our pots of meat and ate all the food we wanted! You brought us into this wilderness to starve this whole congregation to death!" "I will send you bread like rain from heaven," the LORD told Moses. "And I will test them to see if they will do what I tell them or not: Each day the people will go out and gather only what they need for that day. But on the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring home, it will be twice as much as they gather any other day." Moses and Aaron told all the Israelites: "This evening you will realize the LORD took you out of Egypt and in the morning you will see the LORD's glory, for He has heard you grumble against the LORD. What are we that you should grumble against us." Moses added: "This evening the LORD is giving you meat to eat and in the morning all the bread you want, for the LORD has heard you grumble against Him. What are we? You didn't grumble against us but against the LORD." "Tell the whole congregation of Israel," Moses said to Aaron: "Come before the LORD, for He has heard you grumble." But then, as Aaron talked to the whole congregation of Israel, they turned toward the desert and saw the LORD's glory appearing in the cloud. "I have heard Israel grumble," the LORD said to Moses. "Tell them: 'At twilight you will eat meat, and in the morning you will get all the bread you want, and then you will know I am the LORD your God.'" In the evening quails came up and covered the camp, and in the morning dew was lying around the camp. When the dew lifted, the desert ground was covered with something small and flaky as fine as hoarfrost on the ground. When the Israelites saw it, they asked one another, "What is it?" because they didn't know what it was. Moses told them, "This is the food the LORD gives you to eat.

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

G Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE LESSON

Ephesians 4:1-16

So I, a prisoner in the Lord, urge you to live as people whom God has called should live. Be humble and gentle in every way, be patient, and lovingly bear with one another. Do your best to keep the oneness of the Spirit by living together in peace: one body and one Spirit - even as you have been called to share one hope - one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, Who rules over us all, works through us all, and lives in us all. But each of us has been given the gift measured out by Christ Who gave it. So it says: "He went up on high, took prisoners, and gave gifts to people." Now what can "He went up" mean but that He had gone down to the lower parts of the earth? He Who went down also "went up" above all the heavens to fill everything. And He gave us some men to be apostles, some to speak the Word, some to tell the good news, some to be pastors and teachers. His purpose was to equip His holy people for service as workers to build up the body of Christ until all of us get to be one as we believe and know God's Son, reach a mature manhood and grow to the full height of Christ. We shouldn't be babies any longer, tossed and driven by every windy thing that is taught by the trickery of men and their clever scheming in error. Let us tell the truth with love and in every way grow up into Him Who is the Head—Christ. He makes the whole body fit together, unites it by every contact with its support, and to the extent that each and every part is doing its job, He makes the body grow and builds it up in love.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

C Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia. (sing)

HOLY GOSPEL LESSON

John 6:22-35

P The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the sixth chapter.

C Glory be to Thee, O Lord. (sing)

The next day the people were still lingering on the other side of the sea. They had noticed only one boat was there and Jesus had not stepped into that boat with His disciples but they had gone away without Him. Other boats came from Tiberias near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord gave thanks. When the people saw that neither Jesus nor His disciples were there, they stepped into these boats and came to Capernaum, looking for Jesus. They found Him on the other side of the sea and asked Him, "Rabi, when did You get here?" "I tell you the truth," Jesus answered them, "you're not looking for Me because you've seen miracles but because you've eaten some of the bread and been well fed. Don't work for the food that spoils but for the food that keeps for everlasting life, which the Son of Man will give you because God the Father has sealed in Him the power to give it." "What are the works God wants us to do?" they asked Him. "What God wants you to do," Jesus answered them, "is to believe in Him Whom He sent." "What miracle can You do?" they asked Him. "Let us see it, and we'll believe You. What can You do? Our fathers ate the manna in the desert, as it is written: 'He gave them the bread from heaven to eat.'"

"I tell you the truth," Jesus said to them, "Moses didn't give you the bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the real bread from heaven. God's bread is coming down from heaven and giving life to the world." "Lord," they said to Him, "always give us this bread." "I am the Bread of Life," Jesus told them. "Come to Me, and you will never be hungry. Believe in Me, and you will never be thirsty."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise be to Thee, O Christ. (sing)

APOSTLES' CREED

p192 or the back cover of LSB

☩ I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life ✠ everlasting. Amen.

Hymn of the Day ~ Guide Me, O Thou Great Redeemer

LSB 918

1 Guide me, O Thou great Redeemer,
Pilgrim through this barren land.
I am weak, but Thou art mighty;
Hold me with Thy pow'rful hand.
Bread of heaven, bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more;
Feed me till I want no more.

2 Open now the crystal fountain
Whence the healing stream doth flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through.

Land me safe on Canaan's side.

DISTRIBUTION

p199

LSB 617

O Lord, We Praise Thee

1 O Lord, we praise Thee, bless Thee, and adore Thee,
In thanksgiving bow before Thee.

Thou with Thy body and Thy blood didst nourish
Our weak souls that they may flourish:

O Lord, have mercy!

May Thy body, Lord, born of Mary,
That our sins and sorrows did carry,

And Thy blood for us plead

In all trial, fear, and need:

O Lord, have mercy!

2 Thy holy body into death was given,
Life to win for us in heaven.

No greater love than this to Thee could bind us;

May this feast thereof remind us!

O Lord, have mercy!

Lord, Thy kindness did so constrain Thee
That Thy blood should bless and sustain me.
All our debt Thou hast paid;
Peace with God once more is made:
O Lord, have mercy!

- 3 May God bestow on us His grace and favor
That we follow Christ our Savior
And live together here in love and union
Nor despise this blest Communion!
O Lord, have mercy!
Let not Thy good Spirit forsake us;
Grant that heav'nly-minded He make us;
Give Thy Church, Lord, to see
Days of peace and unity:
O Lord, have mercy!

I Come, O Savior, to Thy Table

LSB 618

- 1 I come, O Savior, to Thy table,
For weak and weary is my soul;
Thou, Bread of Life, alone art able
To satisfy and make me whole: Refrain.

Refrain: Lord, may Thy body and Thy blood
Be for my soul the highest good!

- 2 Thy heart is filled with fervent yearning
That sinners may salvation see
Who, Lord, to Thee in faith are turning;
So I, a sinner, come to Thee. Refrain.
- 3 Unworthy though I am, O Savior,
Because I have a sinful heart,
Yet Thou Thy lamb wilt banish never,
For Thou my faithful shepherd art: Refrain.

4 Weary am I and heavy laden;
With sin my soul is sore oppressed;
Receive me graciously and gladden
My heart, for I am now Thy guest. Refrain.

5 What higher gift can we inherit?
It is faith's bond and solid base;
It is the strength of heart and spirit,
The covenant of hope and grace. Refrain.
